

Internship opportunities in the section Conservation and Restoration

The Conservation and Restoration department of the Bayerisches Nationalmuseum offers the following internship opportunities:

- One-week mandatory internships as part of a school requirement
- One-year pre-study internships prior to studying conservation
- Compulsory internships of varying length to accompany academic studies

Internships are offered in the various departments according to the respective staffing availability.
This also applies to the supervision of final theses in conservation studies.

Send enquiries to:

Dipl.-Rest. Melanie Münchau M. A.

Telefon: +49 89 21124-287

restaurierung@bayerisches-nationalmuseum.de